Informations for authors of KUCKUCK

Dear Author,

we are very pleased to receive an article from you for our journal!

To simplify the process of publishing in the kuckuck for you and us we collected here some informations:

- For further informations on the journal kuckuck. notizen zur alltagskultur please see our homepage (soon also in english): <http://www.kuckucknotizen.at>
- Your article should not have more than 20.000 characters (with remarks and bibliography). Please use a common version of quoting and formate all remarks as final scores.
- Please note that you are also welcome to participate in our journal in other formates than the 'usual article', like essays, or poetical texts for example.
- Please write your contribution in genderneutral language.
- We will only publish original articles or articles which are published for the first time in german or english.
- Please send your contribution via E-Mail as word-document to kuckuck@uni-graz.at or to your contact person.
- Besides your article we need a short description of you: not more than 450 signs, about your work, work/study place and research interests.
- Please forward us also your postal adress, because you will get three deposit copies of the volume you are publishing in.
- Unfortunately we cannot offer a further fee than these deposit copies.

Finally we would like to inform you that the whole editorial board of the kuckuck decides about the publishment of all contributions of every volume of the journal.
